Beautiful Ambition

By Karl Nova

listen!
I'm not just daydreaming and wishing I'm bursting with ambition thirsting I drank wisdom Poured out in nan's kitchen
She fed me hope and that expands vision
I saw many possibilities
I planned, thinking
I thought so big I saw the future winking showing me what is possible my eyes glistened inside belief has risen though I have fallen due to hard collisions hard collisions with obstacles made my goals seem so impossible those who can't see themselves shining talk less of you will likely be mocking you if they make fun of you Just keep running through the field of dreams see them coming true
Take steps with ambition burning in your chest Work hard and be prepared for what's next

Hold on Press on
Be strong

Filled with beautiful ambition
