Task

Your task is to write a detailed account of what the girl sees and feels as she is in the jar.

Use your planning from yesterday to describe what she sees happening outside of the jar…

Try to describe her thoughts and feelings…

Maybe you want to hint at what is going to happen
to her…

Maybe you want
to drop clues about why she is there…

Maybe you could include clues about how she ended up in the jar.

Maybe you could include clues about how she ended up in the jar.

You can introduce this information by using phrases such as:

“How she wished she hadn’t…

Maybe you could include her thoughts about escape … or her hopelessness and the impossibility of escape.

Maybe you want to describe the strange cloud…

Finish your writing by leaving your reader in suspense.

"There was only one thing she could do, one last hope…"

"A shaft of light refracted suddenly through the glass as the oaken door creaked open…"

"Opening her eyes she became aware of a huge shadow looming over the glass vessel…"

Go back through the slides and yesterday's planning if you need reminders when you are writing.

Create a truly magical piece of writing.
