THE BOY, THE MOLE, THE FOX AND THE HORSE

By CharlieMackesy

Task Three

Miss M loves this book and reads it regularly.

Why do I love this book?
I love how this book is different to any other book I have read. You can pick up this book and turn to any page, you do not have to read it from the beginning. The quotes in the book are motivational and are particularly helpful during this time.

Reflect on what you enjoy about the book..

Charlie created this to say Thank you to our key workers during the pandemic!

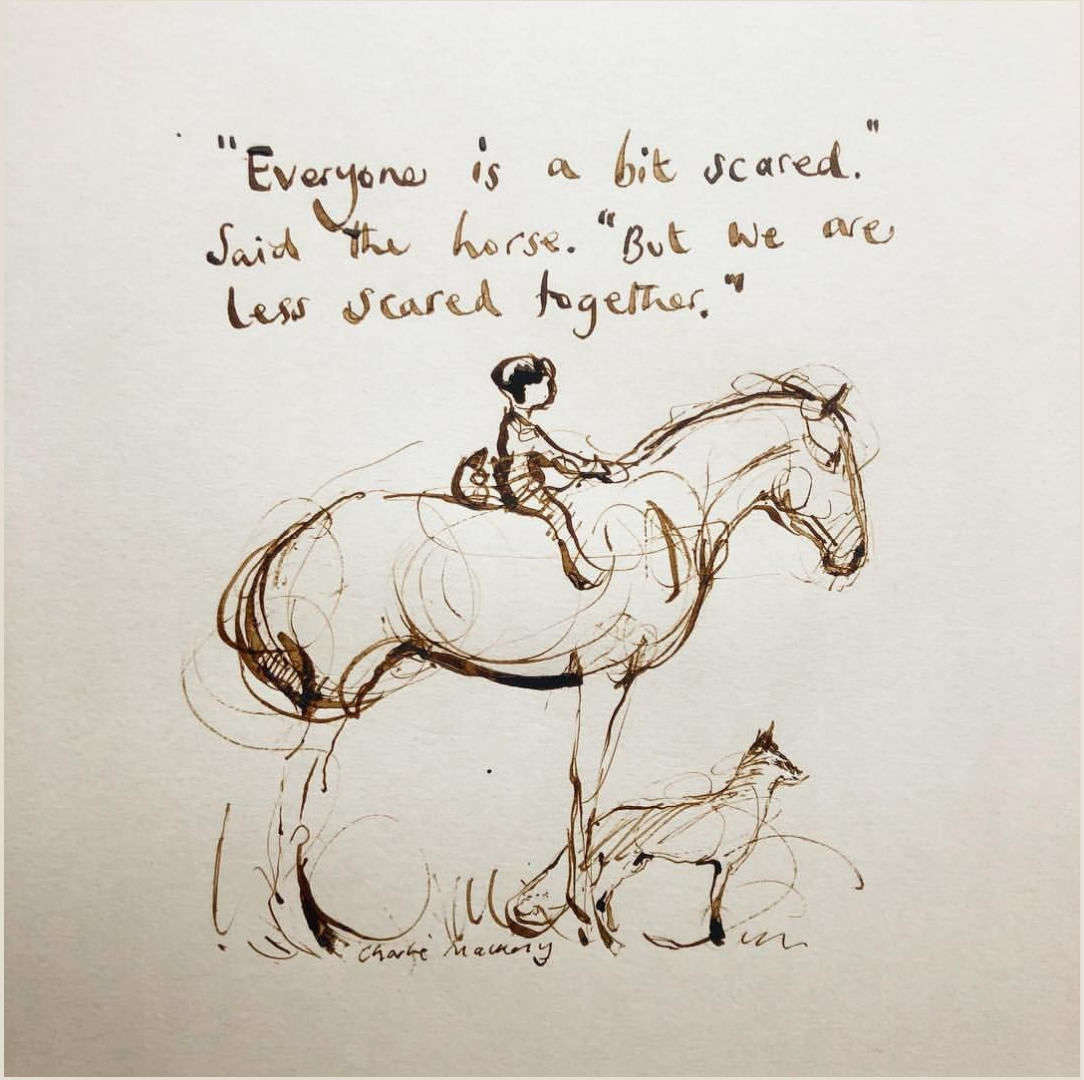

Task Four

- Do you agree with the horse?

- Think about a time when you have been Scared…

1. How did you overcome that fear?
2. Did anyone help you?
3. Are you scared of anything now?
4. How could you conquer this fear?

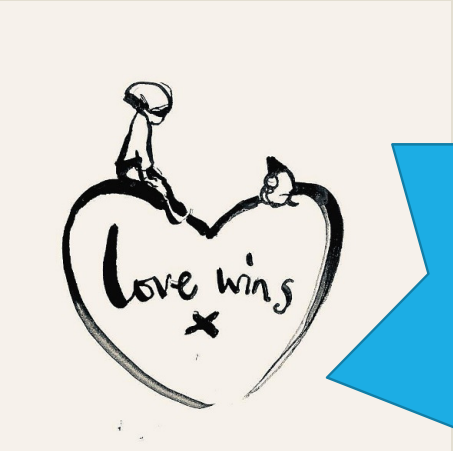

Task Five: Over to you!

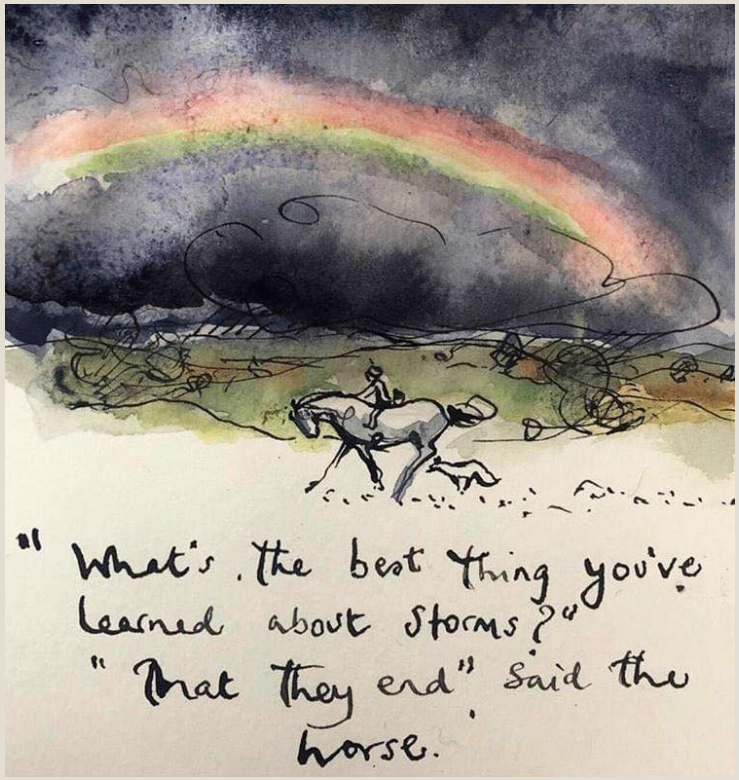

- Find a quote or page of Charlie's book that you like (watch the first video again)
- Your task is to create your own page for Charlie's book….

- We must start by thinking about your quote. You may want to change some of the wording in Charlie's phrases and quotes or you may want to come up with one of your own.
- You have the choice to make up your own phrase or illustrate a saying.

Some more examples…

Charlie created this simple yet powerfully illustration for Comic Relief this year.

We are so excited to see your work…

- Here are some links that may help you to think about your illustrations:

Notice how they are just quick sketches to help illustrate your phrase or quote!
